

For Immediate Release

March 1, 2010

An Artistic Pairing

-- InterContinental Toronto Centre teams up with renowned Métis Artist Tim Mohan to create stunning lobby gallery exhibition

The InterContinental Toronto Centre -- one of Toronto's leading luxury hotels located in the heart of the entertainment and financial districts -- is partnering with Métis artist, Timothy D. Mohan in showcasing his stunning original works in the Grand Lobby Gallery wall of the hotel.

"It's an ideal partnership," says Renaud Payette, general manager, InterContinental Toronto Centre. "Our goal is to provide unique experiences for visitors to Toronto and Timothy's work beautifully showcases the themes of First Nations Culture that enhances guests seeking a connection with the Aboriginal Canadian community"

Mohan worked in 2004 and in 2006 with Canadian fashion icon Linda Lundstrom who choose his "River Woman" motif for her fall La Parkas series of clothing. Mohan's work is a regular feature of both ANN and WNN newspapers.

Timothy features some of his best work in the InterContinental Toronto Centre including his Freedom and Sunrise series. His original works are for sale through the hotel.

About the InterContinental Toronto Centre

The 586 room InterContinental Toronto Centre, which overlooks scenic Lake Ontario, is set in the midst of Toronto's financial, theatre and restaurant districts. The hotel features the 4 diamond Azure Restaurant and Bar and the 8,000sq foot The Spa InterContinental. Direct reservations within Canada and US can be made at 1-800-422-7969 or 416-597-1400 and worldwide reservations can be directed to 1-800-327-0200 or online at www.ictc.ca.

For additional information or visuals of the InterContinental Toronto Centre or to arrange an interview or visit, please contact Yola Marshall, Director of Sales and Marketing.
Tel: 416-597-8139. Fax: 416-597-8162. Email: yola.marshall@ihg.com.